Why Be Involved

Supporting events such as the International Wheat Congress (IWC) offers partners a great return on your investment by allowing organizations a chance to achieve their marketing and business objectives all in one event. The IWC provides an opportunity for you to engage with key decision makers, demonstrate your products and services and gives your business brand exposure to industry key players from around the world. This is your chance to shine and showcase your organization and be seen as a leading entity in the industry.

As a partner at the IWC, you will have the chance to enhance your organization's reputation as an industry supporter and demonstrate your commitment to research, development and education excellence.

Heightened Visibility

By participating you will have significant exposure prior to the event via a dedicated IWC marketing plan including social media, website and email.

Enhanced Image

If you want to improve how you are perceived in the sector and raise your profile, participating at an event that appeals to this target audience is likely to shape attitudes and help generate a positive reaction.

As a sponsor at the IWC, you will have the chance to enhance your organization's reputation as an industry supporter and demonstrate your commitment to latest trends and innovations in the wheat industry. The event will also allow your organization to stay up to date with current developments within wheat breeding, genetics, genomics, and agronomy and help with your competitor advantage.

Brand Awareness

Participating allows you to showcase your products and/or services and get immediate client feedback. During the IWC you can promote your product and/or service to 600+ influential decision makers and have a chance to develop relationships with new customers.

Face to Face Opportunities

Don't let the value of real human connections go under appreciated. The ability to shake hands, share experiences and stories, and ultimately give the prospect an emotional connection to your brand in person can be a game changer. Supporting the IWC provides an excellent platform for face-to-face engagement which is the key to building strong business relationships and increasing product awareness domestically and internationally.

Stand out from the Crowd

Participating at the IWC provides a significant way to create competitor differentiation. Partnering with IWC, you will stand out above the rest of the marketplace.

Promote your commitment to the industry, its rising talent and leaders, and the communities in which you operate. You will have key opportunities to discuss business in a more personal manner than via phone and cement your organization as an industry leader.
